ABSTRACT

This inventory is a guide to higher education programs, centers, and related agencies. It opens with an essay that gives an overview of higher education research and training, providing a context for the programs and centers listed in the inventory. The chapters are: (1) "Research and Training in Higher Education: The State of the Art" (Philip G. Altbach); (2) "Inventory Usage Guide" (Philip G. Altbach and David Engberg); (3) "Inventory of Higher Education Programs, Institutes, and Centers" (Philip G. Altbach and David Engberg); (4) "Journals in Higher Education: An International Inventory" (Yoshikazu Ogawa); and (5) "Country Index." An appendix contains the questionnaire used to gather the information. (SLD)
